NATURE NOTE

Gray Tree Frogs

These treefrogs are forest dwellers and live in small woodlots, in trees along prairie streams, in large tracts of mixed hardwood forest and in bottomland forests along rivers and in swamps. Some reside in knotholes and water-filled cavities in a variety of trees. They also rest on large leaves or in nooks and crannies of farm buildings, or in porches, decks or empty birdhouses. The call of the gray treefrog is a musical birdlike trill. Keep an eye (and ear!) out for these little guys at Innsbrook!

INNSBROOK INSTITUTE

Report to the Community

Dear Friends of the Innsbrook Institute:

As we complete another year of the Institute, we are pleased to report to you that the Institute finished the year in a strong financial position. Fundraising was brisk, sponsorships exceeded our projections and there was outstanding participation during the Festival. Below, you will find a breakdown of our year-end financial report.

Income	Expenses
Contributions - $54,766	Administrative - $45,964
Fundraising - $144,677	Fundraising - $31,932
Program - $28,979	Program - $106,570
Total - $228,422	Total - $184,466

Academy students enjoyed nine days of intense study, practice and performance during their time at Innsbrook. Because we strategically invited a fewer number of students this year, each student had the unique opportunity to perform at least once during the Festival, had additional opportunities for private lessons from our illustrious faculty and received more personalized instruction. The students enjoyed their time at Innsbrook, appreciated their host families and would recommend the Institute to their friends. As we look forward to the coming year, we will continue to optimize that positive experience for our students by exploring the ideal number of Academy students to include.

This year's Festival welcomed new, up-and-coming stars in the classical music field including the Calidore String Quartet, Grace Park and a trio of fabulous young pianists; Hsin-I Huang, Tzu-Yin Huang and Mi-Eun Kim. In addition to these rising stars, audiences enjoyed hearing vocalists Mary Jane Lee and Brian Owens, who provided musical stylings from pop, jazz, cabaret and opera. The highlight of the Festival was closing night which featured the Ralph Vaughan Williams, "Fantasia on a Theme by Thomas Tallis" with our Academy students, Emerging Artists and the entire music faculty providing not just one, but two orchestras!

Plans are already underway to secure artists and faculty for the 2015 season as we celebrate the 15th season of the Innsbrook Institute Summer Music Academy and Festival. Mark your calendars now for June 5 through June 13. We are thankful to each one of you for everything you did to support and encourage the Institute this year. If you have additional questions or comments, please do not hesitate to contact either of us at (636)928-3366, ext. 218.

See you next year!

Thomas Gunn
President and
Chairman of the Board
