All levels welcome! We will meet rain or shine. $35 per artist. Please register by Friday, June 21: <https://bit.ly/3xmVtRQ>.

Meet the NEIGHbors at Dun Right Stables

June 16 | 9-9:30 a.m. | STB

Meet the NEIGHbors day is back! We invite you to join us outside the stables fence line to meet the NEIGHbors that live at Dun Right Stables.

Get your horse fix on as you meet some of the horses boarded here. Learn about each one from their owners, ask questions, and take as many pictures as you desire. Petting and touching will be based on each horse and their owner's preferences—always ask first, please. We look forward to seeing you there!

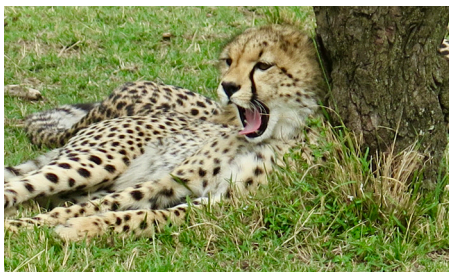

Please note: There will be no access inside the stables for these events. Visitors may gather along the outside of the front fence lines of the barn area. Available horses with their owners will be lined along the inside of the fence lines, waiting to meet you!

Questions? Contact Dun Right Stables at ride@dunrightstables.com

Speaker Series: Kenya Safari Expert

Mon., July 1 | 6 p.m. | COM

Bluebird Trail Report

We now have 88 active bluebird nests containing 134 eggs and 241 hungry chicks. Thirty-five more chicks have fledged.

Have you had trouble with paper wasps or yellow jackets in your nest box? They will build their gray papery nests on the ceiling of the box. Bluebirds will rarely use the box if it is occupied by wasps. The best method to get rid of them is to spray the wasps through the entrance hole at night with 0.1 percent pyrethrin spray. Then plug the hole until morning. The next day clean out the box, removing the nests and the dead adults and then rubbing the ceiling of the box with a bar of Ivory soap. This will deter the wasps from attaching their nests there.

Please send your questions and/or reports to Shirley at saritsema@gmail.com.

SAVE THE DATE! 2025 IHS Golf Tournament

Mon., May 19 | GC

Next year's Innsbrook Historical Society Golf Tournament will be held on Monday, May 19, 2025. This event was a big success in 2024. A huge field of golfers and the support of IBK property owners and area businesses contributed to our most financially successful event ever. Funds raised will support the completion of the barn. The growing IBK Village will continue to be a wonderful destination for Innsbrook residents, their families and local schoolchildren who come to learn about and appreciate our areas past.

Note from the photo above that all but two of the roof's rafters are now in place. What's most amazing about this is the fact that ALL of the trusses were positioned without the use of any mechanical means other than ropes and pulleys. Our volunteers, using patience, determination, brawn, and lots of thought, were able to get the job done. A big thank you to our volunteers for a job well done. Because of limited space, the last two will be installed with the use of a "boom" type crane.

The next Sunday Porch concert is on June 23 at 2 p.m. Our performers are The McCready-Logan Project, made up of Teddy McCready and Scott Logan featuring music from the contemporary rhythm and blues genre. A combination of R&B, along with pop, soul, funk, hip hop, and electronic sounds will fill the summer air at our Historic Village site. Bring your coolers and chairs - you don't want to miss it.

If you're not yet a member, please consider joining us in helping preserve our little bit of 19th century history here in Warren County. Go to www.innsbrookhistoricalsociety.org. If you have any questions about the IHS, don't hesitate to call Dave at 314.704.7001..

TYROLEAN SONNENHAUS

Innsbrook was born when a few like-minded families dreamed of an escape where they and their kids could explore nature's wonder away from the worries of modern life.

The definition of modern life has changed quite a bit over the last 53 years, but that founding dream continues to converge with reality every day for Innsbrook families. Our adventure in the Tyrolean Region continues to the South with our newest home-type, the Tyrolean Sonnenhaus.

Our newest style of Innsbrook living combines the modern exterior of a treehouse with cozy interior elements of a cottage into one convenient and comfortable residence that can transition from a vacation home to a permanent residence, 365 days a year.

Available in three and four-bedroom models, each home boasts an open floor plan with an artist loft, sloped ceilings, and decorative wooden beams accentuating the interior's highest points. LP ExpertFinish vertical board and batten siding, metal roofing, and stone masonry details adorn the exterior, adding a touch of rustic elegance to the modern design.

Designed to maximize natural light and open spaces, these homes feature sliding glass doors opening onto composite decks or patios, while oversized windows flood the interiors with sunshine. Owners can also personalize their homes with a range of upgrade options.

Located near the Tyrol pool, with plans for future expansion, these homes offer both convenience and tranquility.

Our display home, showcasing the Sonnenhaus II model, is now open for tours! Contact Innsbrook's Real Estate agents to schedule your visit and discover the perfect blend of modern living and natural beauty. Call ext.9199, schedule a tour online at <https://www.innsbrook-resort.com/real-estate/schedule-a-tour/>, or, drop by the Real Estate office, open daily from 9 a.m.-5 p.m.

Flag Day is Our Everyday Blessing Reminder

The American Flag is made up of 13 horizontal stripes -- seven red alternating with six white representing the original 13 Colonies. Red symbolizes hardiness and valor, white symbolizes purity and innocence, and blue represents vigilance, perseverance, and justice. The stars represent the 50 states of the Union. Betsy Ross, a Philadelphia seamstress, was commissioned to sew the first flag of the United States. The American Flag has many nicknames – The Stars and Stripes, The Red, White, and Blue, Star Spangled Banner, and Old Glory.

During the War of 1812 between Britain and America, Francis Scott Key, was held captive on a British prison ship in Baltimore Harbor during their attack on Fort McHenry. Upon seeing the survival of The Stars and Stripes after such a horrific bombardment, Key wrote our Star-Spangled Banner poem and set it to a popular British drinking tune – To Anacreon in Heaven. In AD 1824, ship captain William Driver was given a 10x17ft American flag by his mother to take on his travels around the world. He respectfully called it “Old Glory” as a symbol of freedom and as a reminder of home. Old Glory has been to the North pole, Mount Everest, and the moon. The flag is folded 13 times into a triangle to resemble the tri-cornered hat worn by George Washington and his Continental Army Soldiers during the Revolutionary War. Each fold of the flag has meaning as it honors life, veterans, mothers, fathers, and God.

When the flag is completely folded, the stars are uppermost, reminding us of our national motto, “In God We Trust.” President Harry S. Truman from Independence Missouri made June 14 Flag day -- the day in 1777 the Continental Congress adopted it as our nation’s flag. Go ahead and proudly fly our American flag on that day and everyday as a celebration of the many blessings in your life.
